Subject: Presidential Order Regarding Broadcom Proposal and Annual Meeting Update

Today the President of the United States issued an Order requiring Broadcom to immediately and permanently abandon its proposed takeover of Qualcomm. Under the terms of the Order, all of Broadcom's director nominees are also disqualified from standing for election as directors of Qualcomm. We recently issued a press release which contains the Presidential Order.

Let me explain what this means. First, as a result of the Order, Broadcom must permanently abandon its attempt to acquire Qualcomm. Second, at our upcoming Annual Meeting of Stockholders — which Qualcomm was ordered to reconvene on March 23, 2018 — only the existing Qualcomm directors will be nominated and can be elected to serve on the Board. However, if you haven't already, it still remains important that you vote the WHITE proxy card for all 11 of Qualcomm's directors. Meeting details will be shared shortly.

This news is already generating increased public communications and media attention. Please remember that you should not comment to the media on matters relating to our business or our customers. If you are approached by the media, please instruct them to contact our Corporate Communications department at corpcomm@qualcomm.com.

I want to thank all employees for your patience and perseverance during these past several months. As the Board and the executive team continue to believe, there is no company better positioned than Qualcomm in mobile, IoT, automotive, edge computing and networking within the semiconductor industry.

Your continued dedication and focus on executing on our strategy have been and remain critical to delivering on our near- and long-term value and growth.

Steve
