Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election Of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 27, 2006, at a meeting of the Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of QUALCOMM Incorporated (the "Company"), the Committee approved the terms of the 2007 Annual Bonus Program (the "Bonus Program") applicable to key employees of the Company, including the Company's executive officers. The design of the Bonus Program is similar to the Company's 2006, 2005 and other prior year programs, and all such programs reward achievement at specified levels of financial and individual performance.

Under the Bonus Program each officer position has an assigned base target bonus level, expressed as a percent of fiscal year-end annual salary. Each officer position also has an assigned "stretch" target bonus level, expressed as a percent of fiscal year-end annual salary. The target bonus levels are competitive with target bonuses for similar positions reported in independent, third-party published surveys reviewed by the Committee. Depending on Company and business unit financial performance and individual performance, each officer may earn between 0% and 312.5% of the stretch target. Two components comprise the fundamental design of the Bonus Program:

- Pro forma financial performance of the Company or the Company and relevant business unit, as appropriate. Financial performance includes revenue and earnings before income taxes (EBT), with greater emphasis placed on EBT. The level of performance, upon which the bonus award is based, is determined from the ratio of fiscal year-end pro forma revenue and pro forma EBT compared to the planned pro forma revenue and pro forma EBT budgets reviewed by the Board of Directors at the beginning of the fiscal year. Pro forma financial results are used to enable evaluation of operating results on a consistent and comparable basis. The Company presents and defines pro forma financial results in its quarterly earnings releases furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 8-K.
 - Discretion. This discretionary component enables the Committee to reduce the annual bonus payable to an executive officer participant. Management may also adjust the bonus payable to each non-executive officer based on such participant's performance and contribution to the Company during the fiscal year.
