DEAR QUALCOMM STOCKHOLDER,

You face an important decision regarding the future of your investment in Qualcomm. With Qualcomm's Annual Meeting of Stockholders fast approaching on March 6, you can vote the BLUE proxy card for six independent director nominees to show support for Broadcom's value-maximizing $82 per share offer. If the six independent nominees identified on the BLUE proxy card are not elected and the current Qualcomm board has not entered into a merger agreement with Broadcom before the Annual Meeting, Broadcom will withdraw its $82 per share offer and stop its pursuit of Qualcomm.

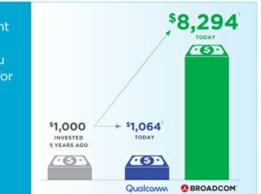

Broadcom's Compelling Offer Provides Significantly More Value Than Any Other Available Alternative

We believe Broadcom's offer is the most attractive, value-enhancing alternative available. At $82 per Qualcomm share — which consists of $60 in cash and $22 in Broadcom stock — we are offering a significant cash premium plus the opportunity to participate in the upside potential of the combined company. Our track record of executing large acquisitions and providing shareholder value, particularly following acquisitions, speaks for itself. The Qualcomm board has no excuses for not transacting with Broadcom to give you the benefits of Broadcom's offer.

Instead, the current Qualcomm board, which has embroiled Qualcomm in costly disputes with its largest customers and with regulators around the world, is offering you a risky standalone strategy that rehashes broken promises from 2015 and is based on lofty projections that are disconnected from reality.

The value of your investment in Qualcomm is worth significantly less than if you had invested in Broadcom for the last five years.

This discrepancy in value is the result of Qualcomm's poor execution, including failure to monetize 4G, and a broken business model that has resulted in customer disputes, regulatory investigations and significant fines. Why should you believe that Qualcomm's plans will provide different results?

You Now Have an Opportunity to Show Support For Broadcom's Value-Maximizing $82 Per Share Offer

Vote Today on the BLUE Proxy Card "For" All Six Independent, Highly Qualified Broadcom Nominees

Broadcom's Offer Provides Substantial Deal Certainty and a Clear Path to Completion

We remain confident in our ability to complete this transaction within approximately 12 months following the signing of a definitive agreement, and have demonstrated our confidence by committing to:

- divest two businesses in order to speed up the regulatory clearance process;
- V take other actions necessary to obtain regulatory approvals subject to a very high materiality standard;
- pay Qualcomm an $8 billion regulatory termination fee, the largest such fee of all time, in the highly unlikely event the transaction does not close; and
- pay Qualcomm stockholders a daily ticking fee in cash if the deal takes longer than 12 months to close due to unexpected delays in obtaining regulatory approvals.

These are not just our words or empty promises. We have given to Qualcomm and publicly made available a proposed merger agreement that includes all of these commitments that we stand ready to execute immediately. Vote the BLUE proxy card TODAY for all six independent, highly qualified Broadcom nominees to show support for our compelling offer.

The Future of Your Investment in Qualcomm is in Your Hands

We recently revised our slate from 11 to six nominees. By voting the entire BLUE card, you are voting to install a majority of the board who will make a transaction with Broadcom a top priority, while maintaining continuity with existing Qualcomm directors to oversee the business through the close of the transaction.

Ultimately, the choice is yours. A vote on the BLUE card is a vote for independent nominees to give you the opportunity to obtain Broadcom's premium offer, with both the certainty of cash and the potentially significant upside of Broadcom stock.

Qualcomm's stock has only traded above $82 per share for three days over its 26-year history as a public company. A vote on Qualcomm's white card is simply a vote for the status quo, or worse.

If the six independent nominees identified on the BLUE proxy card are not elected and the current Qualcomm board has not entered into a merger agreement with Broadcom before the Annual Meeting, Broadcom will withdraw its $82 per share offer and stop its pursuit of Qualcomm, and stockholders will be left holding stock in a company with a Board, management team and business model that have destroyed value.

Now is your opportunity to make your voice heard by voting the BLUE proxy card to elect ALL six director candidates nominated by Broadcom.

Sincerely,

Hock Tan President and CEO Broadcom
